

Feedback Report:

The boarding week was a valuable learning experience. I gained confidence in communication, understood interview preparation, and improved teamwork skills. The sessions on HR questions and mock interviews were especially beneficial. I suggest adding more real-world case studies for practice. Overall, it was an enriching and helpful program.